Thank you to all who come out and enjoy the entertainment!

Brown Bag Basics

- All Brown Bag concerts are on Wednesdays from 12 noon to 1 pm (May 27 to July 15) in the Emporia Public Library Courtyard.
- In case of rain or extreme heat, concerts will be moved to alternate sites, such as the Little Theater in White Auditorium (across the street from the library) or the Emporia Arts Center (at 815 Commercial.) Updates will be posted on the Library's Facebook page.
- A local food vendor will offer lunch and snack items for sale. Free water is available on site.
- The Emporia Arts Center's ArtMobile will be parked at the concert site starting at 11 am, offering free, fun crafts for all to create.
- Due to limited seating, you may wish to bring your own lawn chairs.

Brown Bag Background

Thanks to all of the cooperative sponsors, after twenty-one years, the Brown Bag concert series continues to showcase local and regional talent for audiences of all ages. The concerts bring Emporians and the surrounding communities together with talented performers for a fun time of music, magic, and celebration.

Please join us weekly on the Emporia Public Library front porch for summer performances sure to make you smile!
